

To My Baby Cakes

Hey baby! It's smelly boi here to tell you that I love you loads and loads and loads and how lucky I am to have you in my life! I'm really dependent on you! I don't know what I would do with my life if I didn't have you in it! You make me really really happy and I want to spend my life with you making new memories and settle down with you. I also want to go exploring with you like we did in Cardiff and Brighton and London, I love going exploring with you! I really really do love you sweetie!

Baby, you have changed my life since we've gotten together! You've made me happier and you have helped with my confidence! You've gone on holidays with me, like before we had gotten together I had never been on a holiday and I always felt like I was missing out. You helped with this by taking me to Brighton for a week and I loved that week with you baby! You've helped me to swim and I love swimming with you! I loved it when we went swimming at Hilton in Brighton, I love it when you pick me up and walk around, it makes me really happy! You took me to my first pride, I loved Taunton pride and I'm really looking forward to going Brighton pride with you! You've changed my life a lot over the past year that we have been together and I can't wait to see what the future has in stock for us!

You're so amazing!!! Honestly you are! You're so gorgeous, kind, caring and supportive! I want you forever and ever! I want to get engaged and marry you! I want to live with you and see you everyday! I want to go on little adventures together! I want to have a family with you! I want to grab your hand and go through life together! I want to grow old with you and be there for each other! I worship you so much baby! I literally worship you and the ground that you walk on! You're like a god to me. I would happily set up the Alex Hammett religion but I want to be the only one who can worship you! This is going to sound selfish but I want you all to myself, forever! I'm really obsessed with you!

I'm really excited to go Brighton with you again! Hopefully the weather will be nice and sunny so then we can chill on the beach for a bit! I'm really looking forward to Brighton Pride too! I'm really excited to see what there is and to be wearing pride stuff with you! I'm really looking forward to spending some alone time with you in Brighton! I love having alone time with you! I love our cuddles and hugs and kisses! This is another reason I can't wait to live with you, to be able to have some alone time with you every night and to have naked cuddles with you and chill and watch TV or play games together! I really love your company! I love everything about you! Including your non-filter mouth 🤪🤪.

Baby, can I just say that you're absolutely perfect! I love you so fucking much and nothing will ever change that! You will always have a special place in my heart and I just want to be able to hold you and protect you and spoil you! My love for you just keeps growing and growing and I just want to smother you with my love! I just want you for the rest of my life! I don't want anyone else as they're not you! You're my everything, my whole world! I can't wait to see you again and give you a massive squishy hug and kiss! Thank you for everything you do for me, I always appreciate it! I love you loads and loads my precious man!!!
