

Happy 1 Year Baby

Hey baby! Happy 1 year! Can you believe it's been a whole year? This time last year I would have been thinking about what it would be like to kiss you and what it would be like to hold your hand. Now I don't have to imagine what it'll be like as I get to hold your hand and kiss you every time I see you! It really is like a dream come true! You're so amazing! I know I say this a lot, but I really want you forever and ever! I really do! You make me so happy! You're perfect! I just want to say thank you for putting up with me for a whole year. It's my first 1 year with anyone! You're so amazing though and I can't wait to watch the new Sonic movie with you and to have dinner with you!

A year ago today we would have been talking everyday for like a week and a half and I would have done my chickening out thing. I just want to say that I really am sorry for chickening out when it came to telling you how I felt about you, I just got really nervous when it came to telling you. I just wish I never chickened out as you're the most amazing, perfect, kind, and caring guy I've ever met, and I just want to be with you and hold your hand forever! I want to grab your hand and walk-through life with you! I want to get engaged to you and marry you! I want to move in together, I really can't wait for that day as I'll get to see you every day! I want to have a family with you too! Could you imagine having kids and getting them ready for school, like I could get them ready for school and also make you breakfast in bed or something. We could take them on little trips out and treat them to things. You'll probably gang up on me 😂😂.

Baby you know that I really really love you right? I've seriously never loved anyone like I love you. I love spending time with you. I love having cuddles with you. I love gaming with you! I love watching TV with you. I just love doing everything together! I really can't wait to see what the future has in store for us baby! I'm really excited for the concerts and to go to Brighton Pride with you sweetie! I'm really excited for everything that we plan to do! Alex, I honestly really love you and want you! I know I've said this before, but you'll always have a special place in my heart! Nothing will ever change how I feel about you! You're so pretty too! I mean have you seen yourself! You're really beautiful and sexy! I want you to be happy baby! I want to protect you! I'm so lucky to have you as my boyfriend. I really am the luckiest man in the world to have you as my boyfriend!

I just want to say, happy 1 year baby cakes! We have created so many memories over the past year and I can't wait to create so many more with you! I can't wait to take more pictures together. I know I have a lot of pictures of you on my phone and it may seem really weird but the reason I have them is because I like to look at pictures of you and us together! It makes me happy and helps me when we're not together. I like taking pictures together, it makes me really happy and they're something we can look back on together and smile and chuckle about. I just can't wait to be with you and see where the future takes us. I really really love you loads and loads! Thank you for an amazing year and I can't wait for many more to come. I hope you like the presents I've got you and there's a little something extra too 😊. Thank you for everything you do! See you soon sweetie! ❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️
