

Essay for Alex 2 - To My Precious Man ❤️

Hey sexy boi. You wanted another essay and to be honest I liked writing the last one so here you go. I'm just going to go straight off the bat and say I love you loads and loads and I will always do anything for you. I want you to be 100% safe and happy, your health is one of my main priorities. I know you find it hard sometimes to talk about what's wrong so just remember that I'm here for you if you ever need to talk about what's on your mind or if you're having a bad day then I'm always here if you need to vent your feelings, you could literally just randomly start venting and I will listen to what's wrong and try to help you where I can. I hate seeing you upset baby as it makes me sad. Like when you ran off to the bathroom, I wanted to give you a hug and try to cheer you up. That's why I ran after you. I know I'm not the best at cheering people up but I try my best.

You mean a lot to me sweetie, you really do. You're my world and I'm the luckiest man in the world to have you and to be able to call you my boyfriend. You make me really happy, the happiest I've been in a long time and I never want it to stop. You're so cute baby it goes off the scale, like when you wrote me that card and snuck it in my bag. When I was at home sorting my bag out and then I saw this envelope I was pretty much speechless and overcame with happiness, love for you and a little bit sad because I wasn't with you. When I read the card I started to cry a bit but they were tears of happiness because I've never had anyone love me like this before and it just made me really happy. I keep the card on my desk next to my bed so that I can see it before I go to sleep and then see it when I wake up.

I really enjoy our date nights and weekends together. They make me really happy. I really enjoyed when we watched Cruella together, it was really nice when we cuddled a bit in the cinema. I also like going Yo! Sushi with you and watching you get excited over the conveyor belt 😄, I know I may have mentioned this before but it's cute when you get excited and it just makes me want to hug and kiss you as it really is so cute. I really enjoyed last Saturday when we went to the arcades in Exmouth. It was really fun and I can't wait to go to the one in Brighton with you. I think we should have another go at the racing game when we go next ;). I just also wanted to say thank you for the prizes you gave me, they're really cute and I will cherish them forever as they're prizes that you won and gave to me. I really can't wait for more weekends together, I seriously love spending loads of time with you and having cuddles. The only sad part about the weekends is the fact that one of us has to go home at the end. I just wish that neither of us had to go home as I don't want the fun to end.

I love you billions and billions baby and I always will. You're the most amazing, kind, caring and beautiful man ever and I'm seriously the luckiest man to have you and to be able to call you my boyfriend/fiance :). I can't wait to make more happy and amazing memories together. Seriously baby you're so perfect and anyone who treats you badly doesn't deserve you, I will always treat you good as your happiness is my happiness especially when I see your gorgeous smile. I want to be able to treat you to anything that you want and while you may say no to me treating you it's just going to be one of those cases where it doesn't matter what you say I will still treat you anyway as I want you to have everything that you want. I really really love you sweetie and I want to be with you forever. Question is, can you put up with muggins here haha 😄. I just wanted to also say thank you for everything that you've done for me, like calming me down when I'm panicking or helping me when I was coming out as to be honest I would have been too chicken to do it by myself and I wouldn't have known how to word it so seriously thank you so much I really appreciate everything that you have done for me.

I should probably close this off now as it's reached a second page 😊. I really really love you baby and I will do anything for you. I can't wait for what the future has in store for us and whatever it is I want us to walk through it together and make many more happy memories. You're so perfect and I want us to be together forever. I love you lots like jelly tots baby
