

Essay 4 - I love you baby

Hey sweetie, I thought I would write another essay for you so that you can read it when you're really struggling. Thank you for amazing holidays these past few weeks, I had loads and loads of fun with you. I'm really sad that they're over but we have Brighton in February which is less than 100 days. I know it's still a while but we have Christmas soon and we can set aside a day where we can have our own Christmas day together, we can dress smartly and go somewhere where we can have a Christmas dinner if there's anywhere that does it early. I loved our date nights we had on our holidays baby. It made me really happy to see that you were happy and enjoying yourself. I'm really happy that you enjoyed yourself on our holidays sweetie, you deserve to have nice holidays as you work hard.

I really loved sharing a bed with you and I'm going to miss cuddling whilst watching family guy. I'm actually sitting in the living room at the moment writing this whilst watching family guy on ITV 2. I'm going to miss waking up next to you and having morning cuddles with you. I loved playing animal crossing with you in the morning and during the day, I just love playing games with you and chilling. We can give the Mario Party game a go when you're over if you wanted? I love doing everything with you sweetie. I love going to the shops with you, I love just chilling together, I love going on trips out with you, I love doing romantic things together, I love getting food with you, I literally just want to do everything with you, I love it.

Baby you're so so special to me and I love you very much, nothing will ever make me stop loving you. I've fallen down that rabbit hole a lot, you're so perfect baby. You're so beautiful and cute and I love everything about you. I've never had these feelings for anyone before and I never want the feeling to end. I know I can be a pain in the but sometimes but I really do love you. When I was on the train earlier my heart felt slightly painful and I think it's because I was really sad that we had to leave each other and go home. I really miss you sweetie. I know I say this alot but I really can't wait for the day we live together, I don't think I would ever stop smiling the day we move in together. Alex I will always love you and want you! I really can't wait to make new memories with you so that we have loads of happy memories we can look back on when we're older. I want to go travelling with you and see your face light up with smiles and to see you get excited. I love it when you get excited, you look really cute when you get excited. Baby I want you to know that I'm really comfortable around you, I know when I'm excited I jump up and down and that's me being so comfortable around you that I show how I'm feeling. I really love you baby and I can't wait to see you soon. You're perfect and so so special to me and I want you forever. Never forget that I love you sweetie and nothing will ever change that. Thank you for everything you do for me baby. I love you loads and loads my precious man.
