

Essay for Alex 5 - The love of my life

Hey sweetie. I thought I'd write you another essay as you asked for another one. It also gives you a new essay to read. I don't mind doing these for you as I know they help you. I just want to say thank you for all of the playlists you've made for me baby, I have them downloaded on my phone so that I have them when I go for my walks. Thank you for everything else that you do for me.

I really love you baby, you're the most amazing man I've ever met. I've always loved you, every time I saw you in college I would always get this feeling and while it took me ages to realise it, I want to say that it was love at first sight because since the very first time that I saw you I always had this feeling that made me peaceful. Even before we got together I loved having chats with you on messenger, I was comfortable with telling you pretty much anything that I was thinking without the feeling of being judged. I'm so comfortable around you like the first time we were naked in front of each other I didn't feel self conscious or anything, I was actually quite comfortable with you seeing me naked.

Baby my love for you is something that will never ever fade, you're really attractive, you have an amazing personality and you're so kind and caring. You're so perfect baby! I'm the luckiest man ever as I get to call you my boyfriend and one day I will be able to call you my husband and live with you. I want us to grow old together, I want us to experience life together. I want us to have a family of our own and raise kids together, taking them on little adventures out and holidays and giving them nice birthdays and Christmas'. Nothing makes me happier than the thought of being with you forever and having a family with you.

I'm really looking forward to Christmas baby. I'm looking forward to helping you decorate your room and decorate a Christmas tree together whilst listening to Christmas music. I really want to bake some Christmas cookies and that together, I love baking with you and it will be even more fun having Christmas music on and baking some special Christmas cookies. We can pick up some special Christmas cookie cutters from Bake and maybe a tin to put them in. I also can't wait to spoil you, I'm gonna fill the stocking up with little knick knacks for you to open on Christmas day. I got you the stocking for Christmas day, I was thinking you could have the stocking in your room so when you wake up on Christmas day you can hop out of bed and open the stocking from me. That's what I used to have on Christmas day, my mum would hang a stocking on my bed and when I woke up on Christmas I would go straight to emptying it to see what I got. It made me really happy and excited and I want you to have the same thing this year. I want you to have a really nice Christmas baby.

I can't wait for our future together sweetie! I can't wait for valentine's day with you, it makes me even more happy and excited as it's going to be in Brighton. I also can't wait to go to our other concerts that we have booked for next year. I really enjoyed our concerts we've been to. I really enjoyed sharing a room and bed with you. You're my everything baby. I've really fallen for you and I want us to be together forever! I've really enjoyed staying up and talking to you whilst you're at work. I love it when we ask each other personal questions as it makes me happy that we're telling each other our embarrassing stories, thoughts and things we want to do. I really love you sweetie! I'm going to finish this up now baby. I love you so so so much and I always will, my feelings for you have gotten stronger and stronger. I really think that we're perfect for each other! I'll always love you sweetie ❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️
