Hey baby! I know this essay has been delayed quite a bit and I am sorry. I really really do love you baby! You're the most amazing man ever and I'm so so lucky to have you in my life and for you to be my boyfriend. I really can't wait to get your ring size and ask you to marry you! I can't remember if you sent me this photo but it's the basis of this essay so I'm going to go through each of the numbers I said you are and why. I really love you baby, don't forget that.

(1) I love you

Baby I'll always love you no matter what! I pretty much fell for you the first time I saw you. I remember you were hanging around Lincoln and the first time I saw you I thought to myself who's that? Like I noticed you as soon as I saw you if that makes sense? I want to keep looking at you but I didn't want to draw attention to myself, like I didn't want you to notice that I was looking at you a lot. I always had this weird sort of feeling when I saw you around and when we were at college outside waiting for lessons I would always look at you. I know it took me like 5 and a half years for me to actually have the balls to tell you how I feel about you but my feelings for you just get stronger and stronger. I may have looked at your facebook and instagram from time to time when we weren't together. I just really really love you very very much! I just want to hug you and cuddle you everytime I see you! Just never forget that I really really love you!

(7) You're really funny

Sweetie, I really love your sense of humour! I still laugh from time to time about the fact you laughed when someone on a TV program you were watching got shot, like I bet it was a serious moment when the guy got shot and then you were sitting there laughing your head off 😂😂. I love some of the things you say as well, like when I say things like "I want to cuddle your thighs and belly a bit” and you go “Is that a lot?”. It always brings a smile to my face. I do love your no filter baby, like when someone doesn’t say thank you and you’re like, “You’re welcome” 😂😂. I love your laugh too! Like on new year’s eve when you jabbed my side and I farted loudly, I loved hearing you laugh so much it made me smile even though I was embarrassed.

(8) You are my prince/princess

Alex you’re so so important to me, you’re my everything and I want you to be spoiled everyday! I want you to have everything you want! You’re the most amazing man to have ever walked into my life and I want you to stay in my life forever. I want you to be my prince (or princess if you wanted to). The thought of having you in my life forever always makes me excited and look forward to the future. I can’t wait for the day that we get married as it’ll be the most perfect day of my life and I want us to have loads of pictures so that we can look back on that day and remember our wedding day, the laughs and happy moments and the moment that we both say “I do” to each other. I only want to have everything with you. I honestly think that we’re soul mates and that we were made for each other even though we wind each other up.

(9/10/13) You are handsome, beautiful and pretty

Baby have you seen yourself? Honestly you’re so so beautiful and I still wonder how I managed to get someone as beautiful as you to be my boyfriend. I love seeing pictures of you on Snapchat, I always stare at them and just think how lucky I am to have you. I definitely don’t say I love you to the pictures sometimes, that would be too silly 😂😂😂. When I look at pictures of us both together I just think how beautiful you are and how ugly I look. I don’t like the way I look sometimes. I still do look at you when you’re doing things and I still do stare at you, I can’t help it as you’re just so goddamn pretty that I just have to look at you. I do sometimes get a little worried that you’re too beautiful for me, like someone will fall in love with you and take you. You’re that beautiful that I worry sometimes about it, I know it sounds stupid.

(14) You are hot

Alex you’re so fucking sexy like you still drive me crazy! I love pleasuring you a lot like I love hearing you moan. I love sucking you off and eating you out. I love kissing your neck and watching you get more turned on. I really really find you sexy and I love feeling you against me. I still feel a little bad when I play with your belly and fat, I love seeing it jiggle and wobble. I love grabbing it when I’m pouding you! It feels really soft and it really turns me on! I love you sitting on my face so then I can properly eat you out, I love sticking my tongue right in and around your hole. I find you so so so fucking hot that sometimes I just have to wank to try and calm down.

(18) You're my everything

Baby you really are my everything. I would be so lost without you like I wouldn't know what to do with myself. You're so so so important to me and I want to be with you for the rest of my life. I've never found someone who actually cares about me before. Like I don't think Emma and Ashton really cared about me but you do care about me and it makes me feel wanted. I really want you forever. I want to care for you for the rest of my life. I want to be the one you come to when you're feeling down. I want to be the one you come to when you need something done. I want to be the one who celebrates your achievements with you. I want you to have the most amazing life that I can give you. I want you to be able to do whatever you want in life and to be happy. You've changed my life this past year and for the good. I'm so glad that I told you how I feel about you, otherwise none of this would have happened and I would be sitting at home doing nothing but working. Alex you really are my everything and that will never change.

(19) You're my best friend

You really are my best friend as well. I feel comfortable telling you personal things and I love having discussions with you. I love the banter we have with each other. I love making you laugh. I love spending time with you! I literally love talking to you about nonsense. I like hearing your thoughts on subjects. I really love hearing about your day and what you've been up to. I want to help you when you have a problem. I want to go on days out with you to places and have fun and I want to make sure that we have fun on our days out. You really are my best friend, my boyfriend and my everything

There you go baby, I think I covered all of the points that I said. I really do love you. I hope this essay was ok. Again sorry it took so long. Thank you for being so so amazing and supporting me, I really do appreciate everything that you do.
